About Doon School of Law

Doon School of Law, a premier institution under DBS Global University, is dedicated to academic excellence and innovation in legal education. The BA- LLB, BBA-LLB, LLM, and PhD programs at DGU are designed to equip students with critical thinking, legal expertise, and professional skills to excel in diverse legal careers. With a strong emphasis on interdisciplinary learning, research, and industry collaboration, students are prepared to be leaders in law, governance, business, and public service. The faculty comprises renowned academicians, legal practitioners, and scholars committed to nurturing talent.

The multi-disciplinary/interdisciplinary approach seamlessly integrates law with business, liberal arts, and technology, enabling students to craft a personalized academic path that reflects their passions and career aspirations.

At Doon School of Law, various programs emphasize not just theoretical knowledge but also practical experience through moot courts, legal clinics, internships, and policy debates preparing students for the complexities of real-world legal practice.

A photograph of four young women sitting outdoors on a grassy area. One woman in the foreground is sitting cross-legged, wearing a white sweatshirt with the word 'happier' on it, and holding a laptop. Another woman is sitting next to her, looking at the laptop. Two other women are sitting further back, one standing and one sitting. They are all smiling and appear to be engaged in a conversation. The background shows some trees and a building.
